NURSE'S SIGH

It's just been one of those days, God.
    It all started at seven this morning.
when I put a run in my new white nylons.
    As I made my rounds it seemed as if I counted a million pulse beats and gave pills by the carloads. I fed your sick with I.V.'s and diets ... till I felt I needed the hypos. This, God, filled my day, along with buzzers, charts and Doctor's orders. But still, God, I checked all labels three times and was careful to give the right dosage,

to the right patient,
at the right time,
by the right method,

Throughout the day, God, I wore my happiest smile even for those who cursed.
Throughout the day, although I complained,
    I thank you, God, for letting me
do the work of a nurse.
